SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

The following table sets forth the beneficial ownership of our common stock by the selling stockholders as of the date of this prospectus, after giving effect to the Exchange Issuance.

Pursuant to the Exchange Support Agreement, and upon the terms and subject to the conditions therein, Xerox, Xerox Corp and the subsidiary guarantors party thereto entered into an exchange agreement (the "Exchange Agreements") with the Exchanging Holders on November 13, 2026, pursuant to which the Exchanging Holders exchanged their 2028 Notes for (i) 10.250% Senior Secured First Lien Notes (2026 Issue) due 2030 newly issued by Xerox Corp, (ii) cash in respect of accrued and unpaid interest on the 2028 Notes and (iii) shares of common stock (such issuance, the "Exchange Issuance") or, in the case of any Exchanging Holder that is not able to hold equity due to prohibitions or limitations set forth in its constating or organizational documentation, an additional principal amount of such new notes.

We are registering the offer and sale of the common stock to satisfy our obligations pursuant to the Exchange Support Agreement and the Exchange Agreements, under which we have agreed to file a registration statement on Form S-3 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), registering the resale of such common stock. The foregoing summary and description of the Exchange Support Agreement and the Exchange Agreements do not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Exchange Support Agreement (including a copy of the form of Exchange Agreement attached as Exhibit B thereto), a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part, and is incorporated herein by reference.

The percentage ownership information shown in the table is based upon 137,080,815 shares of common stock outstanding as of October 30, 2026, after giving effect to the Exchange Issuance. We have determined beneficial ownership in accordance with the rules of the SEC. These rules generally attribute beneficial ownership of securities to persons who possess sole or shared voting power or investment power with respect to those securities, or have the right to acquire such powers within 60 days. Under these rules, more than one person may be deemed beneficial owner of the same securities and a person may be deemed to be a beneficial owner of securities as to which such person has no economic interest. The information contained in the following table is not necessarily indicative of beneficial ownership for any other purpose, and the inclusion of any shares in the table does not constitute an admission of beneficial ownership of those shares. Unless otherwise indicated, the persons or entities identified in this table have sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares shown as beneficially owned by them, subject to applicable community property laws.

The following table also provides the maximum number of shares of our common stock that may be offered by the selling stockholders pursuant to this prospectus and the number of shares of our common stock that will be beneficially owned by the selling stockholders after such an offering, assuming the sale of all of the offered shares.

The selling stockholders reserve the right to accept or reject, in whole or in part, any proposed sale of shares. The selling stockholders may also offer and sell less than the number of shares indicated or no shares. The selling stockholders are not making any representation that any shares covered by this prospectus will or will not be offered for sale. Information about each selling stockholder may change over time.

DESCRIPTION OF COMMON STOCK

As of the date of this prospectus, Xerox had one class of securities registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Exchange Act: common stock, par value $1.00 per share (the "Common Stock"). The following summary of the terms of the Common Stock is not meant to be complete and is qualified by reference to the relevant provisions of New York law and the Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the "Charter") and Amended and Restated By-Laws (the "Bylaws") of Xerox.

Dividend Rights and Restrictions

Holders of Common Stock are entitled to dividends as and when declared by the board of directors of Xerox out of the net assets legally available therefor. All shares of Common Stock are entitled to participate equally in such dividends. There are no restrictions on the payment of dividends or purchase or redemption of Common Stock under the Charter or the Bylaws, provided that all dividends for past periods and the dividends for the current quarter on any outstanding preferred stock and retirement, purchase or sinking fund requirements thereon, if any, will have been paid or provided for.

Voting Rights

Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote per share subject to the right of the holders of any outstanding preferred stock, if six quarterly dividends (whether or not consecutive) thereon are in default, to elect, voting as a class, two additional members to Xerox's board of directors, which right continues until the default is cured. In addition, the separate vote or consent of the holders of outstanding preferred stock is required to authorize certain corporate action.

Liquidation Rights

Holders of Common Stock are entitled to receive Xerox's net assets, on a pro-rata basis, upon the dissolution, liquidation or winding up of Xerox, after the payment in full of all preferential amounts to which the holders of any then-outstanding shares of preferred stock shall be entitled.

Preemptive Rights

Holders of Common Stock do not possess preemptive rights or subscription rights to any additional issues of any class of the capital stock or any of Xerox's other securities.

Liability to Further Calls or Assessments

Based on the advice of counsel, all the issued and outstanding Common Stock is fully paid and non-assessable.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

The transfer agent and registrar for the Common Stock is Computershare Trust Company, N.A., and any successor appointed in such capacity.

Listing

The Common Stock is listed and traded on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol "XRX."

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We are registering the common stock on behalf of the selling stockholders pursuant to the terms of the Exchange Agreements.

The selling stockholders may from time to time offer some or all of the shares of common stock covered by this prospectus. To the extent required, this prospectus may be amended and supplemented from time to time to describe a specific plan of distribution.

The selling stockholders may offer the common stock from time to time, either in increments or in a single transaction. Each selling stockholder may also decide not to sell all the shares such selling stockholder is allowed to sell under this prospectus. The selling stockholders will act independently of us in making decisions with respect to the timing, manner and size of each sale.

The selling stockholders may, from time to time, sell any or all of their shares of common stock on any stock exchange, market or trading facility on which the shares are traded or quoted or in private transactions. These sales may be at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to such prevailing market prices, at varying prices determined at the time of sale, at fixed prices or negotiated prices. The selling stockholders may use any one or more of the following methods when selling shares of common stock:

- purchases by dealers and agents who may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling stockholders or the purchasers of the shares of common stock;
- ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which a broker-dealer solicits purchasers;
- non-marketed block trades in which a broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;
- privately negotiated transactions;
- settlement of short sales, or transactions to cover short sales relating to the common stock;
- through distribution by a selling stockholder to its members, general or limited partners or shareholders (or their respective members, general or limited partners or shareholders);
- writing of options, whether the options are listed on an options exchange or otherwise;
- agreements with broker-dealers to sell a specified number of the securities at a stipulated price per share;
- through trading plans entered into by the selling stockholders pursuant to Rule 10b5-1 under the Exchange Act that are in place at the time of an offering pursuant to this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement hereto that provide for periodic sales of their securities on the basis of parameters described in such trading plans;
- directly to purchasers, including through a specific bidding, auction or other process;
- on any national securities exchange or quotation service on which the common stock may be listed or quoted at the time of sale, including Nasdaq;

- in the over-the-counter market;
- in transactions otherwise than on such exchanges or services or in the over-the-counter market;
- any other method permitted by applicable law; or
- a combination of any such methods of sale.

The selling stockholders may, from time to time, enter into option or other types of transactions that require the selling stockholders to deliver common stock to a broker-dealer or any other person, who will then resell or transfer the common stock under this prospectus.

The selling stockholders may also sell shares under any available exemption to the registration requirements of the Securities Act, including but not limited to Rule 144 under the Securities Act, rather than under this prospectus.

The selling stockholders may enter into sale, forward sale and derivative transactions with third parties, or may sell securities not covered by this prospectus to third parties in privately negotiated transactions. In connection with those sale, forward sale or derivative transactions, the third parties may sell shares of common stock covered by this prospectus, including by issuing securities that are not covered by this prospectus but are exchangeable for or represent beneficial interests in shares of common stock. The third parties also may use shares received under those sale, forward sale or derivative arrangements or shares borrowed from the selling stockholders or others to settle such third-party sales or to close out any related open borrowings of shares of common stock. The third parties may deliver this prospectus in connection with any such transactions. Any third party in such sale transactions may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of the Securities Act and will be identified in a supplement to this prospectus or post-effective amendment to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part as may be required.

Resales by the selling stockholders may be made directly to investors or through securities firms acting as brokers or dealers. Broker-dealers engaged by the selling stockholders may arrange for other broker-dealers to participate in sales. When resales are to be made through a securities firm, the securities firm may be engaged to act as the selling stockholder's agent in the resale of common stock by the selling stockholders, or the securities firm may purchase common stock from the selling stockholders as principal and thereafter resell those shares from time to time. Securities firms may, to the extent permissible, also engage in crosses, which are transactions where the same securities firm acts as an agent for both sides of a transaction. Securities firms may, to the extent permissible, receive compensation in the form of commissions, concessions or discounts from the selling stockholders or the purchaser, either as agent of such purchaser or in a sale to such purchaser as principal in amounts to be negotiated. Such compensation may be in excess of customary commissions, concessions or discounts and will be in amounts to be negotiated in connection with such resales.

The selling stockholders may, from time to time, pledge or grant a security interest in some shares of common stock owned by them and, if any selling stockholder defaults in the performance of its secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell such shares of common stock, from time to time, under this prospectus, or under an amendment or supplement to this prospectus amending the list of selling stockholders to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors in interest as selling stockholders under this prospectus. The selling stockholders also may transfer shares of common stock in other circumstances, in which case the permitted transferees, pledgees or other successors in interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus.

The selling stockholders may elect to make an in-kind distribution of common stock to their members, partners or shareholders pursuant to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part by delivering a prospectus. To the extent that such members, partners or shareholders are not affiliates of ours, such members, partners or shareholders would thereby receive freely tradable shares of common stock pursuant to the distribution through this prospectus.

To the extent necessary, the specific terms of the offering of the shares of common stock, including the number of shares being offered, the name of the selling stockholders, the respective purchase prices and public offering prices, the names of any broker-dealer or agent, if any, and any applicable compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions paid to agents or paid or allowed to dealers will be set forth in a supplement to this prospectus or a post-effective amendment to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part.

Any broker-dealers or agents that are involved in selling the shares may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. In such event, any compensation received by such broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the resale of the shares purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act. Discounts, concessions, commissions and other compensation, if any, that can be attributed to the sale of shares of common stock sold hereunder will be paid by the selling stockholders and/or the purchasers.

We are required pursuant to the Exchange Agreements to pay all fees and expenses incident to the registration of the shares (including the reasonable and documented fees and disbursements of counsel to the selling stockholders), but we will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the common stock sold pursuant to this prospectus. The Exchange Agreement contains customary cross-indemnification provisions, under which we are obligated to indemnify the selling stockholders in the event of material misstatements or omissions in the registration statement attributable to us, and the selling stockholders are obligated to indemnify us for material misstatements or omissions attributable to it.

VALIDITY OF THE SECURITIES

The validity of the securities described in this prospectus will be passed upon for us by Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, New York, New York. Additional legal matters may be passed on for us, or any dealers or agents, by counsel we will name in the applicable prospectus supplement.
